

In your hand you hold a five-cent piece.

Right at the grocer's hand is a moisture-proof package of Uneeda Biscuit. He hands you the package—you hand him the coin. A trifling transaction?

No! A remarkable one—for you have spent the smallest sum that will buy a package of good food; and the grocer has sold you the most nutritious food made from flour—as clean and crisp and delicious as it was when it came from the oven.

NEW GRAND JURY BEGINS ITS DUTIES

Receives the Usual Instructions; Bradford Hardie Is Made Foreman

Monday morning marked the beginning of the May term of the district, county and justice courts. Judge Dan M. Jackson, of the 4th district court, empaneled the grand jury for the new term. He appointed Bradford Hardie, foreman. The other members of the grand jury are: S. C. Ashby, Frank J. Williams, James Crawford, William E. Robertson, Thomas Kelly, C. L. Sirman, Thomas Germain, George Buchanan, A. Silberberg, Stephen O'Connor and Hamilton R. McDowell. No special instructions were given to the grand jury beyond those required by law relating to the examining, election laws, and those governing the running of disorderly houses.

The docket of the county court promises interesting features, being crowded with cases of those indicted for running disorderly houses, gambling, and lending money with which to poll taxes. The indictments for disorderly houses grew out of the "red light" investigation made by the recent grand jury, of which Clarence B. Stevens was foreman.

In the 4th district court the members of the bar association Monday morning met and set a number of cases to be tried during the new term.

SUFFRAGET FIGHT IS BEFORE PARLIAMENT

Members of House of Commons Run Gauntlet of Women Parading Streets While Seeking Ballot

London, Eng., May 5.—The struggle for women's suffrage began again in the house of commons this afternoon when the second reading was moved of the "Lushington Bill," which would enfranchise women. Whether this measure, which proposes to enfranchise 6,000,000 women shall be given a fighting chance or the whole question be buried for the lifetime of the present parliament, will be settled tomorrow. The parties are so hopelessly divided and even the members of the cabinet are so widely set against the question that a forecast of the outcome of the debate is most difficult.

The members, when they arrived at the house today, had to run the gauntlet of many women parading in the precincts, carrying white boards with placards directed at the cabinet ministers, such as "Traitor Asquith," "Deputy Reginald McKenna and Chancellor Hobbhouse."

We Both Lose Money

The habit of buying a commodity to "please a friend" may occasionally be desirable—but not when it's life insurance. If you buy carelessly—without first testing and comparing the merits of the Union Central—you do yourself an injustice, and we both lose money eventually. However—I only lose once—while you go on losing each year during the life of the policy.

The published official reports of New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Michigan, Ohio and other State Insurance Departments give conclusive evidence that the Union Central Life, of Cincinnati, is furnishing insurance at a lower net cost than any other company.

Wm. Penn

10¢ Cigar

THE Wm. Penn is just honest cigar goodness, thru and thru. It isn't a Havana cigar and it isn't a domestic cigar. It's better than either, because it's a blend of both. If it was all Havana it would be twice as costly, twice as heavy and not nearly as good.

DURING several decades the Wm. Penn was, is and shall continue to be the 10c cigar of supreme superiority and utmost honesty.
